

SKYE H. MORSE

PRINCIPAL, INVESTMENT DIRECTOR

Skye Morse is the Investment Director and a principal for M&S Development in which capacity he leads debt and equity fundraising efforts for the organization.

Before joining M&S, Skye managed a 356 MW portfolio of solar energy generating assets for D. E. Shaw Renewable Investments, part of D. E. Shaw's U.S. Private Equity group. In this role Skye oversaw more than $700 million in new solar construction, while providing hands-on leadership of both the tax equity and term debt funding processes. He also held P&L responsibility for nearly $1 billion in assets and managed all day-to-day operations, including performance monitoring and compliance reporting.

As Manager of Business Development for Ogin, Inc., which acquired and redeveloped nearly a dozen aging wind farms, Skye was instrumental in winning over 100 MWs in new power contracts.

Prior to this he held various positions at DNV GL, Goldman Sachs, and Wellington Management Company. Skye serves on the Board of Directors of the Brattleboro Food Coop.

AREAS OF EXPERTISE

Project Development, Renewable Energy, Finance, Compliance Management

13+ years of experience in finance and renewable energy project development and operations

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Arts

Brandeis University

Master of Arts in International Economics and Finance

Brandeis University